

SA740793

A FINE OIL ON CANVAS BY NOTED SCOTTISH ARTIST
DUNCAN CAMERON.
CIRCA 1895.

Price

Sold

Item Reference: SA740793

Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Dimensions

Height = 95 cm (37.4")

Width = 67 cm (26.4")

Depth = 5 cm (2.0")

Description

Duncan Cameron (1837-1916) The Oil painting is an evocative landscape which depicts a shepherd guiding his sheep down a Scottish country lane, with a Loch, the sea and mountains in the background. The painting is full of vitality and Impressionistic colour. It is a fine period Scottish oil painting. Signed lower left "D Cameron". Biography Duncan Cameron (1837-1916) was born in Perthshire, Scotland and was educated at Dundee and South Kensington, London. He is best known for his fine landscapes of the Scottish countryside with a particular fondness for scenes of cornfields. Cameron exhibited mainly between 1880 and 1908. He is best known as a fine landscape painter of the Scottish countryside with a particular fondness for scenes of cornfields. His obituary in the Scotsman noted 'his distinctive note... best expressed in the treatment of cornfields'. Basing his work around Stirling and Edinburgh, between 1872-1900 he exhibited at the RA and at the Society of British Artists. In 1876 he was awarded the Gold Medal at Crystal Palace for showing the best landscape. He died in Edinburgh aged 79. Measurements: Painting: 76w x 51h cm. In frame: 95w x 67h cm. Buyer collect...

Internal Ref: 110P08

Seller Details

Peter Harris Clocks & Militaria

London United Kingdom

Tel: 07930 536818

International Tel: +44 7930 536818