

SA741811

Trench art, German Shell marked 1915, with coat of Arms "British Royal Artillery"

Price

GBP 150

| USD $203 | EUR 175

Item Reference: SA741811

Date of manufacture: 1920

Description

Trench art made out of a German "Feldkanone" Brass Shell, marked HL for "Haniel Luege in Duesseldorf", the date mark "1915" and various other marks and turned into the shape of a coal scuttle. Applied with a copper handle, copper legs and a copper or brass coat of arms of the "British Royal Artillery" reading "Uique quo fas et gloria ducunt" (Where faith and glory lead). Diameter of the Brass Shell is ca 12 cm, the length of the Shell is ca 12 cm, extending to ca 13 cm including the copper handle. Heavy with a weight of more then 600 grams. Free special delivery to UK, EU, USA and Canada. For all other destinations please ask for a quote.

Internal Ref: SKU 458

Seller Details

Henley Street Antiques

50 Henley Street Stratford upon Avon United Kingdom

Tel: 07580 216 993

International Tel: +44 7580 216 993

