Description

A lovely French bisque centre piece. Manufactured in Sevres and designed in the classical style, this piece features two young women in repose at each end. The green painted bowl is draped with gilded wreaths and the base sits on gilded scrolled feet. A gorgeous piece which has been very finely executed. in very good condition except some damage to one of the girls fingers. Please see photo. It is so small that we didn't notice it until we took the photos. Circa 1900
