Description

Beautiful 1930's Art Deco walnut upright cocktail cabinet, every Deco interior should have one of these . Features a drop down top which reveals a mirrored interior still with it's original fittings so often missing normally. A generously sized cupboard below offers plenty of storage of bottles and glasses too, ideal excuse for a little tippie of an evening. There is a central cutlery drawer that is sectioned inside and offers ideal storage for all your cocktail needs, napkins, coasters etc. Newly restored and comes to you in excellent condition, all doors work smoothly and still retain their original catalin bakelite handles. The veneer is that of light to mid tone walnut with beautiful figuring. Ideal size for modern or period interior.
