Description

A well worn, but highly decorative, metal Deed box with a working Bramah lock and key! c.1840 the original painted detail refers to the Estate of "Mr Daniel MELHADO". It is probable this relates the Daniel MELHADO whose death is recorded in January 1838. His will is on public record and had connections with the West Indies. Faint pencil inscription inside, and remains of a later paper label to the side. *Please note that this item is NOT on view at the Honiton address.
