Description

Fine early 19th century solid mahogany adjustable reading table attributed to GILLOWS of LANCASTER. High quality piece made from the best of mahogany. Turned and reeded column with 4 scroll shaped legs with moulded tops and turned patera to the bottoms. The top under framework is all solid mahogany. The top has a lovely grain pattern with thumb moulded edge and original lift out book stop. The table top adjusts in angle via a wooden ratchet type system beneath. The table is in very good condition apart from a small old shake to the top on one side and the top has been sympathetically re-polished. SIZE; 23" wide by 19" deep by 28 1/2" high CIRCA; 1810
