Description

Antique Victorian mahogany & brass reading or music stand, in good condition & dating to around the 1860's period. The top section is mahogany & is adjustable. The upright brass stand also has a height adjustment system. The heavy base section is well cast & looks like it's probably cast iron which was gilded. You can see how the gilding has rubbed over the years, which I think is nice & adds to the character. Width base – 15 inches, 38 cm Width top – 19 inches, 49 cm Min height – 48 inches, 120 cm Max height – 62 inches, 158 cm
