Description

This exquisite Georgian mahogany chest of drawers is a fine example of period craftsmanship. It features two short and three long graduating drawers, all lined with mahogany and constructed with hand-cut dovetail joints for lasting durability. Each drawer glides smoothly and retains its original brass swan handles, enhancing the chest's authenticity and charm. Like all antiques, it bears subtle imperfections that add character and history to the piece. With its rich hue and beautiful patina, this remarkable chest not only provides practical storage but also serves as a distinguished addition to any home, bringing both elegance and a touch of Georgian heritage.
