Description

This nice and tidy wall mirror dates from the early 1900s. The mahogany frame is inlaid and has a bevelled glass which is well useable with only a very small amount of foxing to prove its heritage. A versatile mirror being able to be used as landscape or portrait, it has a nicely detailed corner. This has a matching inlay to the recently added inlaid chest of drawers on our site and the two would sit well together. call us if you would like to discuss 01565 874075
