Description

Beautiful 1930's Art Deco walnut upright cocktail cabinet, every Deco interior should have one of these ! Features a drop down top which reveals an all mirrored interior which acts as storage for glasses. Still retains it's original chrome lemon squeezer and bakelite and chrome cocktail sticks which are so often missing. There is an internal light which lights up when the upper door is opened, this will need rewiring. A generously sized cupboard below offers plenty of storage of bottles and glasses too, ideal excuse for a little tippie of an evening. There is a central drawer that is sectioned inside and offers ideal storage for all your cocktail needs, napkins, coasters etc. Newly restored and comes to you in excellent condition, all doors work smoothly and still retain their original catalin bakelite handles. The veneer is that of a mid tone walnut with beautiful figuring. Ideal size for modern or period interior. UK mainland delivery £65, other locations please email for a quote. Currently all pieces are being delivered between 7 - 10 days.
