Description

Beautiful 1930's Art Deco walnut Serpentine shaped cocktail cabinet in gorgeous figured veneers, every Deco interior should have one of these ! Features a drop down top which reveals an all mirrored interior which acts as storage for glasses. Still retains its original chrome lemon squeezer and bakelite and chrome cocktail sticks which are so often missing. There is an internal light which lights up when the upper door is opened, this will need rewiring. A generously sized cupboard below offers plenty of storage of bottles and glasses too. Newly restored and comes to you in excellent condition, all doors work smoothly and still retain their original catalin bakelite handles and key. The veneer is that of a mid tone walnut with beautiful figuring. Ideal size for modern or period interior. UK mainland delivery £75, other locations please email for a quote. Currently all pieces are being delivered between 7 - 10 days depending on location.
