Description

One of two Art Deco matching wardrobes we have listed, this is the smaller, the other is a double with different internal fittings, please see other other listings. This beautiful wardrobe exudes quality and style. Book paged veneers in a true blonde tiger grain birch with contrasting straight grain walnut veneer banding to the top and base. Lovely detailing to the corners too which are inverted with a scallop shape and again linier walnut darker banding to accentuate the shape. Two nickel plated curved door handles with working key opens to reveal and generously sized interior, see below for all measurements. Full length hanging area on the left side with added bonus of a chrome shoe rail to the base and on the right side are five curved open shelving, perfect for folded items. This wardrobe has been through our workshops and has been fully restored so comes to you in excellent condition. UK mainland delivery is £90, if you require two man delivery please contact us for a quote and let us know your area. Currently there are no delays in delivery which is currently 7 -10 days.
