Description

The clock movement stamped "A D Mougin de Paris" and signed on the dial, Ferdinand Berthoud. AD Mougin was a well-known French clock maker working in the mid nineteenth century. He is known to have made clocks in the French clock making region of Montbeliard (which is close to the Swiss border) and is also listed as having premises on the Rue de Turenne in Paris. Circa 1888. In excellent original condition. Possibly made for the Paris exhibition of 1889.
