Description

A Large Architectural French Cast Iron Cross, This Magnificent antique cast iron cross from the church yard of a derelict country church in France. The Cross would have been cast over 150 years ago and decorated with briars and thorns. The cross is very heavy indeed it has some of its original silver paint still intact, it is not damaged but it does have a weathered rusty finish due to natural weathering. A decorative architectural treasure which could be used outdoors or in. The overall size of the cross is 50" high x 25" across GB185 We Give Free Delivery to Mainland England & Wales, Scotland please enquire.
