Description

Antique Thomas Russell full hunter pocket watch. Thomas Russell & Son was a well respected business having achieved a Royal Warrant as watch and clock makers to the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh. In 1881 the company started importing movements from Switzerland, such as the one we have in this particular watch, a stem-winding 10-jewel movement which is working nicely. The movement is fully signed, including the Tempus Fugit logo, and it is all protected by an inner hinged cover. The watch measures 51mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is the "Russell" model from the Illinois Watch Case Company, made specifically for Thomas Russell. It is gold plated and there is some rubbing towards the edges from where it has sat in a pocket. The winding crown pushes in to open the front cover. Inside there is a glass lens which is in beautiful condition. The signed dial is in lovely condition with original blued steel hands, a subsidiary seconds dial and an outer minute track. The watch comes in a new presentation box.
