Description

Here we have an outstanding fine quality Edwardian Sheraton style Pembroke table c1900. As you can see the table has stunning colour and patina. This well looked after table has seen little sunlight so the wood has kept its vibrant colour. There is a beautiful inlaid patera to the top centre sitting amongst quarter matched Satinwood panels. There are drop flaps to either side. There is a delicious boarder of cross banded Brazillian Rosewood with fantastic colour and figure. There is a single drawer to one end and a faux drawer to the other. The drawer has a cross banded border and Box wood line and Ebony line inlay to the surround. The drawer and faux drawer retain the fine quality brass handles and have hand cut dovetail joints to Oak linings. There is inlaid Rosewood reeded decoration to the top of the legs and a central Rosewood panel to the elegant squared and tapered legs. The base of the leg has a solid Rosewood collar and there are original fine quality brass casters. An outstanding Sheraton revival table in great retail condition ready for your home. The dimensions are approx 92 cm wide flaps up 48 cm flaps down 86 cm deep 72 cm high. The best price for this item ...
