Description

Stylish mid 19th.c. French marble top centre table or gueridon c.1860. Particularly well figured marble top in shades of grey (with hints of pinks and purple) with moulded edge and slightly raised lip, designed to prevent spilt drinks from running off the sides. Mahogany veneered apron with a beeded edge. Raised on a crisp turned column in solid mahogany and shapely scroll carved tripod legs with original brass castors. Excellent condition, cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Dimensions: diameter 35", height 29".
