Description

For sale, a very rare oak cased presentation aneroid barometer by Dollond of London from the Shipwrecked Fishermen & Mariner's Royal Benevolent Society to Captain JH Browne of the Steam Trawler, Saturn. The barometer has a five inch ceramic dial with brass bezel and turned and polished oak case. The painted scale measures 28 to 31 inches of barometric pressure with weather indications below. Painted lettering to the centre of the scale arc states, "Marine Aneroid Barometer Made by Dollond, London" with the serial no: 832 either side of the central spindle holding the blue steel pointer and set knob and brass pointer. The lower section of the scale is reserved for, "The Shipwrecked Fishermen and Mariner's Royal Benevolent Society" name with the centre depicting a coloured representation of the Society's flag. The address is stated either side as, "26 Suffolk Street, Pall Mall, East S.W" The golden oak hinged presentation case is designed with marine style rope handles and opens to reveal a circular routed section in the base into the barometer is placed. It can then be quarter turned clockwise to secure it in cleverly provided grooves into which the top and bottom ba...
