Description

K0503 Superb William IV rosewood dining table / centre table, having tilt top top with beautiful and very dramatic grain raised on three sided concave support with carved scrolls terminating in trefoil base and cast metal paw feet. This antique breakfast table retains its soft and mellow colour and good patina, it has been sympathetically restored and it is ready to place at home. The top is sturdy and wobble free. No woodworm. It is extremely rare to see rosewood veneer on underside of the top. The table would sit four comfortably. c1830 H28.5" Diam47.5" H73cm Diam121cm
