Description

We are delighted to offer this superb very early Oak Farmhouse Refectory Dining Table. Certainly dating to the early 18th Century and could be older. Very rare to find a table like this of this size and age. Having a wonderful colour and patina from years of life and waxing. At 2.62 meters it would comfortably seat 14 people. Knee height is good at 63 cm. The table remains strong and sturdy and in overall excellent original condition for the home. Note this table comes with 2 later extensions that slot into each end, they are made from solid oak and extend the table by approximately 2 feet each end when required. Length 262 cm Depth 86.5 cm Height 79 cm
