Description

Superb set of twelve Edwardian oak dining chairs c.1910. Ten chairs plus a larger pair of matching carver armchairs. Solid oak frames. High backs with a padded panel over three slats with an Arts & Crafts style shaped and pierced flower head detail. Moulded top rail and carved terminals to the rear stiles. Shaped arms to the carvers with scrolling ends and turned supports. Over good sized removable seat pads. Moulded rails to the seats, raised on turned and block front legs and feet, joined with H stretchers for strength. Upholstered in a deep red leatherette. Excellent condition, very solid and sturdy. Cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Will sell the 10 chairs without the carvers for £1995 if preferred. Dimensions: Chairs – width 20", depth 21", height 43". Armchairs – width 25½", depth 26½", height 46".
