Description

High quality set of 8 antique mahogany shield back dining chairs including 2 carvers, with many fine details & in excellent condition, dating from around the 1910-20's period. The top of the backs have triple curves & the carvings inside the back are exquisite, including the "Prince of Wales Feathers" & many other fine details. The legs are tapered with spade end feet & each chair has four cross stretchers between the legs, which are designed to give the chairs more strength. We have just had the drop in seats re-upholstered in a natural cotton fabric & the chairs have all been re-polished. These chairs are beautifully designed with good proportions & they even look great from behind. Please enlarge all the images, especially the ones of the details on the backs. We always have dining tables in stock which would match these chairs.
