Description

Beautiful 1930's Art Deco walnut upright cocktail cabinet, every Deco interior should have one of these ! Features a drop down top which reveals a blonde sycamore interior which acts as storage for glasses, the drop down door is mirrored and perfect for mixing drinks on. A generously sized cupboard below offers plenty of storage of bottles and glasses too. The figuring on the exterior of this cabinet is the real hero and exudes quality, certainly won't ever get bored of admiring. Newly restored and comes to you in excellent condition, all doors work smoothly and still retain their original catalin bakelite handles. The veneer is that of a mid tone. Ideal size for modern or period interior. UK mainland delivery £85, other locations please email for a quote. Currently all pieces are being delivered approximately 7 days.
