Description

These lights are made out of brass and feature lovely glass panels. Each panel features two screws to hold the glass in. They have been fully rewired, due to the age, the wiring casing had deteriorated. We purchased these four lights together, but one of them has an interesting raised top. This therefore makes it taller than the rest - the other three are all exactly the same. We are happy to sell as pair or as a three if necessary, please get in touch to discuss. C1920-C1940 st 2101
