This pair of antique satin birch armchairs have just come over from Sweden & have been re-polished & re-upholstered in our regular natural cotton fabric, so they are in excellent condition. They date from around the 1910 period. The seats are fully sprung & are very comfortable. Like all the Swedish furniture we deal in, they are top quality. The satin birch has that typical light & dark shading in the grain. These armchairs are very elegant & are structurally sound.
