Description

Early C19th Regency mahogany circular dining or centre table 60" diameter. Superbly figured and patinated mahogany circular dining table raised on a 'lotus-leaf' carved and turned column with gently swept broad-span four-legged splay supports fitted with original cast-brass claw feet castors. The table top with a shallow 2" inset frieze and beaded mould surround beneath the table's edge, which provides an elegant profile whilst also allowing maximum room and ample height provision whilst dining and for chair placement. The 5 feet (60") diameter top providing comfortable accommodation for 8 diners, the radial seating allowing ease of conversation and sociability. The elegant broad quadruple supports of the base providing excellent strength and stability. No breaks, damage or repairs. The figured mahogany top has achieved an exceptional mellow patina and colour, retaining its original polish and 'skin'. The top being completely flat and true. H 29.5" W 60" D 60" England c. 1820
