Description

Wonderfully stylish 1930's chrome mantle clock running on an eight day movement. As with all our clocks this timepiece has been fully and professionally serviced (and we don't just mean a squirt of oil!) by a fully qualified horologist. The dial face is particularly attractive with it's stylised Deco numerals and reflective gold tone panel. The base of the case reads 'British made Case' . Quite a weighty piece and showing good quality throughout , certainly wouldn't have been cheap in it's day. The overall condition is good only to note some pitting to the chrome work more notably to the top of the clock and a little on the sides. FREE UK DELIVERY
