Description

A rare and wonderful find is this original 1930's French Art Deco shop counter advertising bust. Noteworthy because of her size, easily displayed and not often found. Embossed to her base is the word NINON. She's made from plaster and solid rather than hollow. She's been skillfully and delicately painted with cupid bow lips, charcoal eyes and brows with a cloche hat she makes a perfect figure. Her overall condition is very good, only to note the odd scuff and abrasion on the rim of her hat. She weighs a delicate 300.43 Grams. FREE UK DELIVERY
