Description

A very pretty late 19c Art Nouveau design folding brass inkwell and 3 division letter rack c1880. It has 3 graduated folding panels with a pierced botanical design. The front panel has 2 posts for a pen. The inkwell is original and is covered by a fitted lid adorned with the matching botanical design. Would have been used for travelling as it is clearly designed to be portable. In lovely shining condition but still with the original glass inkwell fixed in.
