Description

A stunning pair of antique French photograph frames made from Ormolu, bronze smothered in gold. They have been professionally re-finished, restoring them to their former glory, dating to c.1900. Behind the glazed front, there are stunning gold mounts adorning the pink silk tafeta, the top with two Cherub or Putti figures holding a ribbon and bow garland. Truly exquisite with an overall measurement of 7 1/4" wide x 8 1/2" tall with the circular picture aperture with a diameter measuring 3 3/4".
