Description

This is an antique corner cabinet. An English, mahogany cupboard with astragal glazed door, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1800. Attractive corner cabinet Displays a desirable aged patina Mahogany shows fine grain interest Rich russet hues beneath the wax polish finish Slight bow to door offers character Ideal for the Triskaidekaphobic, with 14 glass plates instead of the usual 13 associated with Georgian cabinet glazing Quality antique glass in good order Slender frames with sinuous demi-lune intersections Tiered crown moulding sits above the whole Door dressed with an inset, brass-lined lock — key absent Arranged as a pair of shelves to the interior Standing upon a shallow plinth base This is a charming antique corner cabinet, with attractive glazing and character. Unusual number of panels would appeal to those with issues around the number 13, which would be a good topic for conversation as a drinks cabinet. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the corner.
