Description

This is a tall antique pair of bedside cabinets. An English, flame mahogany nightstand, dating to the Regency period, circa 1820. Striking pair of side cabinets to enhance any room of a fine home. Displaying a desirable aged patina with wonderfully faded figuring. Flame mahogany shows fine grain interest. Deep caramel hues entice beneath the wax polish finish. Gently tapering profile with square top over pedestal lower. Pair of cabinet doors with field panel finish. Dressed with charming lion's masque drop handles with rolled hoops. Four, matched and working brass-lined locks — key present. Upper cabinet arranged with an adjustable shelf to interior. Impressively carved, spiral half-column decoration to base. Raised upon a tiered plinth base. This is an impressive pair of antique side cabinets, with superb flame mahogany and a highly desirable patination. Standing nearly 1m (39.25") tall, these side cabinets will add a touch of grace to the bedside or wonderfully dress a morning room or hall. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home. Dimensions: Max Width: 47.5cm (18.75") Max Depth: 36cm (14.25") Max Height: 95.5cm (37.5") We offer a 1...
