Description

Very attractive and iconic English Art Deco Savoy Hostess trolley cart dating from the 1920's-1930's period. This two-tiered trolley not only looks awesome but is very functional too. Solid Oak in a mid tone colouring. The condition is very good having been fully restored by our workshop. Unusual to have wheel arches in wood too, never seen this before. Attractive and useful, this trolley glides freely around on its castors and makes serving food or drinks to your guests both easy and great talking point.
