Description

This is a Victorian hallmarked sterling silver double ended scent bottle. It was assayed in London in 1886 and made by Sampson Mordan & Co. It has a circular wrythen body. One end has a hinged lid with the original glass stopper. The other end has a threaded screw on lid. The interior of each end is gilded. The interior of the hinged lid has a kite stamp. There is a monogram to both lids. Unfortunately the stopper is currently stuck fast and there is a chip to one side of the stopper which is visible in the last photograph. Otherwise the perfume bottle has surface marks commensurate with age but is in good general condition. The gross weight is 96 g / 3.08 oz t
