Description

This elegant Edwardian demi-lune tea/side table is crafted from solid mahogany, showcasing classic proportions and refined craftsmanship. It features a single drawer and stands on square tapering legs ending in spade feet, all in excellent antique condition. The hinged mahogany top opens smoothly, resting on swing-out rear legs, with a green baize surface designed to protect the wood. While it bears minor marks and scuffs consistent with age and use, these only enhance its character and warmth. A versatile and sophisticated piece, this timeless table will look stunning in a variety of settings, whether as a functional side table or a stylish tea table in a period interior.
