Description

Superb English burr walnut fusee wall clock by H Palmer of Birmingham c1870 ~~ Excellent condition throughout ~~ This is a superb example of an English fusee walnut wall clock dated to about 1870. The burr walnut case has a wonderful rich colour and patina and the grain really does shine through, this is complimented by the finely carved floral detail to each side. The original 12 inch white painted dial is in excellent original condition it has not been repainted and has just a hint of very fine crazing. It also has its original polished brass bezel. The high quality solid brass 8 day fusee movement is totally original and has just undergone a full overhaul, clean and service so is in tip top condition and should give trouble free service for many years to come. An unusual feature to note about this clock is the position of the winder at 3 o'clock instead of the normal 6 o'clock position. It is keeping accurate time to within 1 minute a week, which I think you will agree is not bad for a 140 year old clock. The clock comes with its original winding key and door key. The only minor thing I can see that is not original is the brass pendulum rod which has been rep...
