Description

We are delighted to offer this wonderful 6-piece set of antique Russian silver cloisonne spoons retailed by Pjotr Arkadevich Chuksanov - unfortunately, we were unable to identify the silversmith "EO". The set comes in its original fitted box with the jeweller's logo stamped to the inner lid and the box closes securely with a clasp at the front. The cloisonne enamel spoons present a wonderful and desirable array of colours ranging from red, blue, green and magenta/purple, all of which are tightly and accurately filled within the 'cloisons'. Antique Russian silver cloisonne spoon Underneath the enamelling is a gilt base and the bowl of the spoon is also lightly gilt with a nice amount of natural fading from its natural age and usage. The stem of the spoon features two sections: one straight and one area which features a classic 'twisted' design. The handle of the spoon is equally intricate with thin alternating panels of green and magenta/purple cloisonne enamelling and a beaded top with blue enamel. The overall proportion and aesthetics of the spoons are very fine and intricately crafted - all the cloisons sit tightly with symmetry within the confined and min...
