Description

Superb Victorian bells in view Music Box circa 1875. An exceptionally clean and fully serviced Victorian bells in sight cylinder Music Box, this fine example has an option to accompany the eight tunes as listed on the song sheet with enamelled butterflies striking on bells. The tunes are automatically changed or can be repeated as indicated by the pointer. The hinged lid is decorated with a musical score, pipes, and floral decoration opening to the movement which has a glazed interior lid and reveals the crank winder, stop/start and play/change levers. A good clean and very interesting Music Box. For a further selection of music boxes you're invited to view our website www.frankcraigantiques.com we can deliver to any destination.
