Description

A rose gold panther-link gate bracelet set with seven opal cabochons which are lovely and fiery. Marked 9CT and S.B & S. LD - the mark of S Blanckensee & Son Ltd, an English company established in 1887 and known to be working through to the 1930s. The bracelet is a timeless style and is thus difficult to date exactly without a dated hallmark but we estimate it likely to be Edwardian, c.1910s. Condition: Overall in good antique condition though some of the outside edge links are slightly bent and one opal has a tiny chip at the edge. The clasp opens nicely and clicks shut securely. Length: 6.5 inches, just short of 16.5cm. Width: 8mm. Total weight: 8.3g.
