Description

A fine quality late Victorian period inlaid satinwood Carlton House desk by the prestigious cabinet makers Jas Shoolbred and Co of London. Of excellent construction in solid satinwood with attractive satinwood veneers onto a mahogany carcas. Decorated with profuse floral inlaid detailing throughout. The superstructure with a pair of stationary compartments with lift up tops and drawers beneath, all surmounted by a crisp brass gallery. The table itself has a central concave long drawer (lockable, key supplied) flanked by two pairs of shorter drawers, all fitted with their original brass handles. The desk is fitted with a sumptuous red leather writing surface complete with gilt tooled decoration to the surround. All standing on 6 elegant tapering legs which terminate in their original brass and ceramic castors. This desk is finished to the rear so could be free-standing within a room if desired. Sympathetically refinished in our workshops to a very high standard, this lovely desk is now offered for sale in excellent condition, with a splendid colour and finish.
