Description

A good pair of mid-19th century French CASSOLETTES*. Predominantly of white marble, these charming decorative garnitures are embellished with fine ormolu stylised monopodia female supports which lead to white marble bases raised on ormolu feet. The lids can be removed and inverted, to reveal useful ormolu candle-holders (see separate image). 9ins (23cms) high. * A "Cassolette" (apart from meaning a small casserole in which a portion of food can be cooked and served!) also means a vessel in which perfumes may be kept or burned.
