Description

A good example of an antique solid Sterling Silver sugar shaker. It is an unusual design with a stylish shape and pretty bow and flower garland around the base. It has its original blue glass liner inside and is a good quality piece, weighing approximately 77g (without liner). The hallmark on the outside has rubbed but it is clearly hallmarked on the inside of the lid for Mappin & Webb, Sheffield, 1906. It is in very good condition for its age. There are no major damages and it displays beautifully. There are some faint surface marks and a few minor signs of age and use but nothing detrimental and there are no damages to the liner. It has been gently cleaned and polished is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask Tracked UK delivery £5, rest of the world £15.
