Description

A large Georgian mahogany table dating from the late 18th Century. It stands on square tapering legs with a thick semi-circular top. Originally part of a larger extending dining table, it now makes a great console table. It is excellent quality and the patina and colour of the timber is beautiful. It is in good original condition and is strong and sturdy. There are signs of age and use, a few minor surface marks and small knocks around the legs but nothing detrimental. It displays beautifully and has been cleaned and lightly waxed and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Free local delivery within 10 miles of Ashburton. London £50.
