Description

This Pair of Brass Pricket Candlestick are both decorative as well as providing a degree of romantic lighting. Standing on a triform base displaying portraits of what are believed to be religious figures, adding a level of style to the pieces. The brass itself has mellowed to a lovely soft finish and we have ignored the temptation to clean and buff the metal as feel they have a lovely tactile quality as they are, offsetting the candles so much better like this. Will be supplied with the two candles as displayed. Circa 19thC Dimensions Width 5in/13cm Depth 5in/13cm Height 19in/48cm Height to top of Drip Tray 16in/41cm
