Description

A lovely mahogany Wellington Chest dating from the late 19th Century. It is a traditional design with 7 graduated drawers flanked by square pillars with carved corbels. The right hand pillar is hinged and locks the drawers in place when closed. It is a well made and a good quality piece with an overhanging top and a plinth base. It is in good condition and displays well with a lovely rich patina. It has been sympathetically restored and repolished. There are signs of age and use and some minor marks and scuffs around the base. There are some old repaired splits in the sides and a couple of repairs to the knobs but nothing detrimental. The drawers are generally clean and tidy and all run smoothly and it comes with a working key. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Free local delivery and regular deliveries to London £50.
