Description

We are delighted to offer this lovely Victorian solid silver sauce boat made by Horace Woodward & Co Ltd in London, 1897. The sauce boat features a wonderful chased design that is in the trademark style of Horace Woodward & Co Ltd, often used on their chased silverware. The boat features a chased floral and acanthus design with significant depth between the stippled background and the embossed flowers. The body is supported by three feet which features a hand-engraved and stripped design. The sauce boat remains in excellent condition marking it ideal for both display and usage with sauces/condiments of your preference. The hallmarks are present on the base of the boat.
