Description

A rare 1917 Silver trench watch. A good quality three piece silver case and original winding crown. Although the case is slightly smaller than some other trench watches, the added length of the hinged lugs balances it well. An enamel dial with lume filled Arabic numerals and 'cathedral' hands, surrounded by 5 minute/second markers. This watch has a central seconds function, which is very rarely seen on a trench watch. The case is stamped with London import marks for circa 1917. A good quality Swiss made mechanism. Circa 1917. Case width 28mm.
