Description

An absolute little gem....this early Oak "cheeky" Cherub complete with shaped ruff, has been very well carved capturing the flowing hair, the face and collar / ruff to perfection....it still has traces of the original gold gilding all over and must have come from a very impressive church or cathedralit has that deep confident carving you only get with these early pieces....and not to sound too much of a clichéit really is a heavenly piece to behold.....perfect for this very special time of year..! French. C1440-60.
