Description

A fine example of an antique barrister's robe box dating from the early 20th century. It is made of metal which is painted black with gold lined detail. It has metal carrying handles either side and a large gilt carrying handle. It also comes with its original working lock and key. The interior of the box is painted blue and has its original maker's label aside the lid "Ede, Son & Ravenscroft. Established 1689. Robe Makers. Court Tailors. by Special Appointments to H.M. The King, Queen Alexandra & H.R.H The Prince of Wales. 93 & 94 Chancery Lane, London". It is in good condition for its age. There are some areas of wear on the paint and some small surface marks and light scratches, some minor dinks but nothing detrimental and overall it is clean and tidy and the hinge is strong. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Tracked UK delivery £15.
