Description

Pair of C18th George III period Cuban mahogany demi-lune tables . Useful pair of elegant and restrained design half-round solid mahogany topped tables ,which could be used separately as console, pier or side tables , or used together to form a ovoid dining or centre table . The shaped tops above a shallow frieze and raised on four square-section tapering supports with carved 'spade' feet . In excellent original , as found, 'countryhouse' condition, with a superb patina and colour to the well-selected mahogany tops . Some minor marks and stains commensurate with age , use and purpose.
